Participation on an AmaWaterways FAM sailing is subject to AmaWaterways' Travel Industry Partner Code of Conduct, as follows:

AmaWaterways truly values travel advisors as partners and friends in the industry who have contributed to our success. In appreciation of this support, we are always pleased to welcome you onboard so that you may experience first-hand AmaWaterways' award winning cruises, hospitality, commitment to exceptional service and the very best in River Cruising.

As a condition of cruising with us, we greatly appreciate that travel advisors follow our Travel Advisor Code of Conduct. This policy is not intended to be all inclusive however, should serve as a general guideline to help ensure all guests, including those from the industry are able to enjoy their experience while traveling with AmaWaterways.

During the entire portion of your trip with AmaWaterways, travel advisors and their guests may not:

- Disclose FAM rates paid to AmaWaterways in any capacity.
- Advertise or solicit your professional travel services.
- Engage in any inappropriate, illegal or disruptive behavior, including verbal or physical abuse, solicitation, harassment, vandalism, theft, violence, use of false identification, possession of illegal substances, or failure to follow security instructions.

AmaWaterways thanks you for your cooperation to this code. Like you, our goal is to add value to the lives of the people we interact with by treating them with dignity and respect. We appreciate your support and look forward to welcoming you onboard soon.
